

proudly presents the 2nd Annual

Spring String Conference

dedicated to supporting students, educators & performers of all ages!

Saturday, March 31st 9am – 4pm
Agincourt Collegiate Institute
2621 Midland Avenue, Scarborough

Interactive Workshops

- bring your instrument to improve your skills and explore new ones

Industry displays

- shop and ask questions

Complimentary lunch

Post-conference reception

Coming From Out of Area?

- Billeting available (Friday or Saturday)
- Pickup/Drop-off shuttling from the subway

Admission:	OSA Members	FREE!!
	Non-Members	$20 (or become a member for $25)
	Students	$15 (includes a year's membership!)

Please register by emailing ontariostrings@gmail.com

Registration closes after March 23rd

For more information and schedule details, please visit

www.ontariostrings.ca

Spring String Conference

Clinic Features

Instrumental Sessions

Led by some of Ontario's top educators and performers!
Improve basic technique on violin, viola, cello and bass
Sign up for the session of your choice when registering, bring an instrument if you can

Performance Technique in Jazz and Fiddling

Featuring Drew Jurecka and Jaron Freeman-Fox
Bring an instrument to be an active participant or feel free to observe

Masterclass: Preparing for competitions and auditions

Led by renowned violinist and conductor, Mark Skazinetsky
Active participation available to the first four registrants who request by email (any instrument)
Observers welcome

The Technology of Strings

Know what strings are best for you and why, hosted by Thomastik-Infeld

21st Century String Pedagogy & String Orchestra Repertoire Reading Session

Featuring clinician Charles Laux, courtesy of Hal Leonard

Things to know...

- Please pre-register by March 23rd by emailing ontariostrings@gmail.com
- At the door sign-in from 8:30am
- Register by email and indicate your primary instrument and *sessions of choice (because of the hands-on nature of this conference, not all choices may be available when registering at the door).
- If you require one of our "Out of Area" services, please indicate this when registering by email.

For more information and schedule details, please visit

www.ontariostrings.ca